

UNIVERSITY SEMINAR (UNV)

UNV-101: University Seminar (3 Credits)

University Seminar I is focused on engaging new students in a community of scholars focused upon reading, thinking, writing and speaking. Students choose from a wide range of topics and begin to develop college-level analytical and communication skills to prepare them for academic success and lifelong learning.

UNV-102: University Seminar II (3 Credits)

Pre-requisite(s): UNV-101 is required.

University Seminar II challenges students to deepen the connection between writing and thinking, equip them with the necessary skills to effectively develop ideas and argument through academic writing, and prepares them for a variety of writing that they will encounter throughout the course of their studies at Salve Regina. Students choose from a wide range of topics for this writing intensive course.
